BALFOUR GREETED WITH CHEERS

FOR O'BRIEN.

GALWAY, Oct. 31.—Upon his arrival today Balfour received a large number of representatives of the local trades, who made suggestions to him for remedying the distress in the western counties of Ireland. Mr. Balfour said he was glad the present government was determined to bring into effect the project which had been before them for some time, and he hoped that the assembly at the dock and gave hearty cheers for O'Brien and Mr. Balfour as the

"THAT MAN DONE IT."

The strange remark of Henry Crook has been repeated in many quarters.

Barnstaple, Oct. 31.—Henry J. Crook, for many years City Engineer, died suddenly at his residence, Barnstaple, at about 11 o'clock this morning. He was accompanied by his wife and two children. He was a well-known and popular man in the town.

He was a member of the local committee, and was a great friend of the poor. He was a man of great kindness and sympathy, and was a great help to many of the poor.

A SERIOUS OFFENCE.
A Young Man Guilty of Horse Stealing

He Admits the Charge—He is Wanted in Kingston for the same offence. A young man about 20 years of age, giving his name as Duncan MacKenzie, was arrested yesterday afternoon at Kingston, Ontario, on a charge of horse stealing. The man was taken to the police station on Tuesday afternoon, and the following day he was committed to the Kingston Jail. Mr. MacKenzie is a native of Scotland, and is said to be a very clever horse thief. He is now being held in the Kingston Jail, and is expected to be tried in the near future.

A BRAVE VETERAN.
One of Britain's Heroes in Bellicose

How He Won the Victoria Cross in the Crimea. Amongst the strangers in town to day was a man who had won the Victoria Cross in the Crimea. He was a brave veteran, and his name was John MacKenzie. He was a native of Scotland, and he had served in the British Army for many years. He was a very brave man, and he had won the Victoria Cross for his bravery in the Crimea. He is now a resident of Kingston, Ontario, and he is very well known in the town.

ORANGE HALL DEDICATED.
The Impressive Ceremony Performed by the Grand Master

Large Attendance of Noted Persons. The Orange Hall, which was dedicated on Tuesday evening last, was the scene of a very impressive ceremony. The Grand Master, Mr. J. W. Barnes, presided over the ceremony, and he was assisted by the Grand Chaplain, Mr. W. H. Barnes. The ceremony was attended by a large number of persons, and it was a very successful one. The hall is now open to the public, and it is a very fine building.

THE BIRCHALL CASE.
Mrs. Birchall's Interview with the Minister

She is charged with the theft of a horse and a dog. Mrs. Birchall, who is a resident of Kingston, Ontario, was interviewed by the Minister of Justice on Tuesday afternoon. She was charged with the theft of a horse and a dog, and she was expected to be tried in the near future. Mrs. Birchall is a very poor woman, and she is very much distressed by the charges against her. She is now being held in the Kingston Jail, and she is expected to be tried in the near future.

Visiting Englishmen

Last night a number of the Sons of England visited English Lodge No. 10, 101. The guests were: B. Bellville to be raised to a 3rd degree, and the local brethren in their handsome Lodge robes, the work in the White Room, degrees were administered. 13 members received instruction, and expressed themselves as well pleased for their journey in coming here. After closing the lodge, the visitors and brethren adjourned to the St. George's Hotel, where a splendid banquet was given. The guests were seated at a long table, and a most excellent dinner was served. The guests were then taken to the "Grand Lodge," and the "Visiting Members."

A Literary Curiosity

In this week's issue of the "Pulse" is a literary curiosity in the form of a composite novel, entitled "His Flaming Ideal," the joint work of W. H. Dallas, Elsie Walker, Wilcox, M. J. Alfred, O. Calhoun, Alan Dale, H. H. Hummel, Pauline Hall, Inspector Byrne, Neil Nelson, Mary Kestlake, John L. Sullivan, P. T. Harman, Bill Nye. Each chapter is by a different writer. The story is an excellent one, as is proved by its great success in the United States.

A Grand Opportunity

Attention is directed to the fact that "A Free Book" is now in the hands of the public. This is an excellent opportunity to obtain a free book or a few more of the same, so difficult matter for our readers to detect mistakes in a printed publication. The company making the offer is a company able to carry out all its promises.

The Horse Thief

The young man Arthur, who was yesterday sentenced to 3 years in the penitentiary on Sunday last for a horse and buggy from H. P. Wells' stable, Kingston, Ont., was taken to the penitentiary by a constable at Yarker's hotel, Napes.

"Ring of All Nations"

Removal is the order of the day, and the "Ring of All Nations" clothing store is not behind in this respect. The store is now located in a striking building fronted store on Front St., opposite Campbell's.

Taken to the Home

The young girl Edie Park, who was arrested yesterday afternoon as a vagrant, was yesterday afternoon taken to the home of the Rev. Mr. Wallon, of the Methodist Church.

A Present from the Rockies

A large golden eagle has arrived at the Department of Customs, Ottawa, from the Rocky Mountains. It is a beautiful specimen, and a present to the Minister.

The New G. T. R. Bridge

Work upon the new Grand Trunk iron bridge has been resumed and the work is now well advanced. The bridge is to be built on the old bridge and two tracks are now in place at this point. It is a fine piece of work.

Change of Location

Mr. A. Lawrence, the proprietor and manufacturer of the famous "Harvard" brandy, is moving his business to the city of Montreal. He is leaving his business in the hands of his son, Mr. J. Lawrence.

The Evangelists

Messrs. Crozier and Hunter, the evangelists, will remain in Portage la Poudre for some time. They are now on their way to Morden for ten days. Rev. Mr. Hunter will then return home for a few weeks.

Handsome Set of Harness

Mr. J. Lawrence, of the city of Montreal, has just completed the manufacture of a set of double harness for Mr. E. J. Corby, M.P. It is a beautiful set of harness, made of the best materials, and is worth $200.

Marriage at St. Michael's

A pleasing ceremony was performed at St. Michael's church this morning, namely, the marriage of Mr. T. Oughlin to Miss Mary Oughlin. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Farrelly.

We Apologize

We are very sorry that our representative could not be given on Saturday at all our customers. We expected a rush and were prepared for it, but we were not heavy for us. While we are pleased to have our customers, we are sorry that we could not serve all of them. We will try to do better next time.

Attended Incendiarism

A fire broke out at the corner of Front and North Front streets. The property in question is owned by Mr. J. Lawrence. The fire was caused by a gas stove. The property was insured by the Fire Insurance Company.

The McInnes Trial and the Canadian Billings

The above may appear to be a strange heading, but I have been led to add it by the fact that the McInnes trial is a very important one. The trial is being held in the Court of Queen's Bench, and is being held in the Court of Queen's Bench.

R. F. Ramsey, Bill Nye.

One evening after supper she heard Dr. Watson saying to her father-in-law in the hall, "I expect to see a party from the West to-night, and if there is anything of importance to them I will call." When they returned after 12 p. m., he said:

To this Mrs. Crawford replied in a nervous voice: "If there had been no party arranged for to-night, I would have no objection to my going as far as to prevent publicity, we must sail for Europe on Saturday. I feel as if I could hold up much longer under the strain."

FULLER'S BOOT
SHOE STORE.
—O—Urging to our increased Business and the heavy stock we carry, we were compelled to secure larger premises, and consequently have REMOVED to the store formerly occupied by James Hennessy, 2ND DOOR NORTH OF ANGLO AMERICAN HOTEL, where we have opened up a Large and Well-Assorted Stock, amounting to over $12,000, of RUBBERS, OVERSHOES and all kinds of Leather and Felt Goods for Men, Women and Children's Wear.
OUR GRAND ANNOUNCEMENT—Over $5,000 worth of the above goods is a Bankrupt Stock which we have bought at 60c. on the dollar, and as the business season is now short, and these are Fall and Winter Goods, they must be all sold before the holidays, and in order to do so we will sell at less than cost. Now is Time and Season for Bargains. Remember the stand 2nd Door North Anglo American Hotel.

CHEAP
SUITS & PANTS.

We have just received this week Black Suits, good appearing goods and will wear, for ONLY $5.00.
Also Black Pants, made of the same material,
FOR ONLY $1.50.
These lines are extraordinary value. Call early before sizes are too much broken.

MEN WANTED NO EXPERIENCE NECESSARY. Important work for men. No capital required. Salary and Expenses Paid. Very large advantages to beginners. Black complete, with fascinating opportunities.
OFFICE 1121 BAY ST. V. P. presents solid yet effective. Write HALL & WY-BROTHERS, Newrygreen, Toronto, Ont. (This house is reliable.)

I CURE FITS! THOUSANDS OF BOTTLES
GIVEN AWAY YEARLY.
When I say Cure I do not mean merely to stop them for a time, and then have them return again. I MEAN A RADICAL CURE. I have made the disease of Fits, Epilepsy or Falling sickness a thing of nothing. I warrant my remedy to cure the worst cases. Because others have failed in no reason for not now trying a cure. Send at once for a treatise and a free bottle of my "Invaluable Remedy" for Fits, Epilepsy and Faint Fits. It costs you nothing for a trial and it will cure you. Address—H. G. MOOT, M.C., Branch Office, 186 WEST ADELAIDE STREET, TORONTO.
